

Level of Service	Description of Service	Yearly Tuition and Fees
Daily Resource: Reading, Written Language, Math	Receives daily resource intervention during the scheduled class; intervention based upon the student's present level of academic performance; trimester goals are developed; measurement of progress is provided; grades are provided to the school for the subject of service, based upon the student's trimester progress.	$9,500.00
Daily Resource: Reading/Written Language & Academic Support	Receives daily resource intervention during the scheduled class; intervention based upon the student's present level of academic performance; trimester goals are developed; measurement of progress is provided; grades are provided to the school for the subject of service, based upon the student's trimester progress. Student receives 90-minutes/wk. Academic Support.	$7,800.00
Daily Resource: Reading, Written Language	Receives daily resource intervention during the scheduled class; intervention based upon the student's present level of academic performance; trimester goals are developed; measurement of progress is provided; grades are provided to the school for the subject of service, based upon the student's trimester progress.	$6,500.00
Daily Resource: Math & Academic Support	Receives daily resource intervention during the scheduled class (45-mins); intervention based upon the student's present level of academic performance; trimester goals are developed; measurement of progress is provided; grades are provided to the school for the subject of service, based upon the student's trimester progress. Student receives 90-minutes/wk. Academic Support.	$6,300.00
Daily Resource: Math	Receives daily resource intervention during the scheduled class; intervention based upon the student's present level of academic performance; trimester goals are developed; measurement of progress is provided; grades are provided to the school for the subject of service, based upon the student's trimester progress.	$5,000.00
Academic Support	Students receives three (3) 45-minute sessions each week to provide support in general education classes or reading concentration. Resource teachers will work with the student's general education teachers to assist the student either in reading/writing or content area curriculum. Available to students First through Fifth grade who are receiving other Longleaf Services or students in grades Fourth and higher who are not receiving other Longleaf Services.	$4,500.00

Reduced Tuition Scholarships: Longleaf does provide a "Reduced Tuition Scholarship" for families who meet criteria and can provide financial documentation to support their need.

Criteria:

- Families who pay three or more private school tuitions with a gross combined family income of less than 90K
- Enlisted military families whose yearly gross combined income is less than 80K per year
- Single parent families whose yearly gross combined income is less than 80K per year

Policy:

- It is Longleaf's policy to prayerfully consider all requests for Reduced Tuition Scholarships. Families are required to provide two consecutive years of Income Tax documentation. Failure to provide documentation will disqualify the family from consideration.
- Students who receive an NC State Education Assistance Authority (NC-SEAA) Scholarships: Children with Disabilities or Educational Savings Account are exempt from requesting a Reduced Tuition Scholarship from Longleaf Academy, Inc.